REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

A GERMAN RED ARMY.

Created by Communist Party.

Berlin, January 23.

It is semi-officially stated that searches in houses at Essen, Dusseldorf, Elberfeld and Luenen, near Dortmund, gave ample evidence of the existence of a Red Army, with military headquarters in Berlin, which was called into being by the German Communist Party. Statements made by those arrested confirm this.

Documents seized show that the Red Army possesses light and heavy arms and a vast quantity of other war material. Armed action was to be begun at the conclusion of the recent strike of smelters at Hanthorn but was postponed a fortnight because it was considered the time was not ripe for combined action throughout the country. It is reported from Dusseldorf that a Red Army General has been arrested there.

TURKISH AFFAIRS.

The Allies in Control.

Constantinople, January 24.

The Government has signed an agreement establishing provisional inter-allied control of all disbursements and revenues. The Administration of Public Debt was immediately advanced 400,000 Turkish pounds on security of the good deposit at the Ottoman Bank.

In order immediately to assist the Treasury, the Allies are raising the embargo on £250,000 deposited by the Turkish Government in the Ottoman Bank, handing over the sum to the Debt Department, which advances the treasury £1,200,000 against sale of stores at present in the State depots. The situation is still precarious. The debt is estimated at five millions, due to non-payment of military and civil officials and other liabilities during the past three months.

THE SUBMARINE DISASTER.

Nearly Sixty Lives Lost.

London, January 23.

The Admiralty announces that six officers and men were lost on the K. 5. It is unofficially surmised that she struck a submerged obstruction created during the war or a rock at the sea's bottom.

Wreckage Found.

London, January 23.

It is authoritatively stated that wreckage has been found which is undoubtedly that of the K. 5. An inquiry is being held aboard the Queen Elizabeth in Arica Bay.

ITALIAN SOCIALIST CONGRESS.

Communist Seceders to Support Moscow.

Leghorn, January 23.

As the result of the victory of the moderates at the Socialist Congress, the Communists left the Congress and proceeded to another meeting-place in order to form a Communist Party constituting the Italian section of the Third International.

LOOTING OUTBREAK IN INDIA.

Said to be Due to Non-Co-operation Movement.

London, January 23.

The India Office announces a serious outbreak of looting at the county markets of the Muzaffarpur district, believed to be connected with the Non-Co-operation movement. Military police are being despatched.

THE PROBLEM OF ARMENIA.

President Wilson's Note.

Washington, January 23.

A Note sent by President Wilson to M. Hymans, President of the League of Nations Council, opines that the distressful situation in Armenia is only one detail of a vast Russian problem. The recent tragic events in Poland and the Crimea prove that armed invasion is not the way to bring peace to Russia. Obviously the struggling border States would not attack great Russia unless encouraged by the promise of support from the stronger Powers.

The President suggests a public solemn agreement of the Powers not to violate or permit violation of the territorial integrity of Russia as a sine qua non to any attempt to pacify Armenia or other border States.

AMERICAN FARMER'S OFFER.

Corn for Famine Relief, Including China.

New York, January 23.

Mr. Hoover, on behalf of the European Relief Committee, has accepted an offer of a million bushels of corn from Middle West farmers. The Committee will arrange for the milling and shipment of the corn, a portion of which may be allotted to famine relief in China.

TYPHUS IN EASTERN EUROPE.

Medical Staff Victims.

Geneva, January 23.

Despite the efforts of the health services, typhus is still ravaging Eastern Europe. Three to four thousand cases have occurred in the Grodno-Lida-Mokovycs area. The influx of Russian and Ukrainian refugees from Galicia is complicating the task of the medical staff, many of whom succumbed to the epidemic.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

THE REPARATION QUESTION.

What Germany Has Done.

Paris, January 23.

The Reparations Commission has issued a list of goods handed over by Germany under the Peace Treaty up to December 31, including over 17,000,000 tons of coal, over 2,000,000 tons of steamers and other vessels, and 10,750,000 kilos of dyes and dyestuffs. Britain receives 1,476,000 tons of ships and 3,113,000 kilos of dyestuffs, of which France receives 3,172,000 kilos and the United States 1,500,000 kilos.

The Commission points out that the German valuation of the surrendered property exceeds the actual and there is a wide difference between the German figures and the estimate of the Commission with regard to many classes of surrendered goods.

French Premier's Speech.

Paris, January 23.

In a speech before the Chamber, the French Premier, taking up the question of reparations, pointed out that France after two years is still waiting for payment. France's patience should not be interpreted as weakness; yet France has no intention of using force before exhausting all other means. The Allies will examine Germany's present financial possibilities. The Government knows that immediate results are possible and will insist upon getting them. The Allies have a right to see whether Germany really does her utmost and conceals nothing. Union among the Allies is, however, necessary to prevent Germany escaping part of the payment.

The Franc Goes Up.

Paris, January 23.

M. Briand awaited Mr. Lloyd George and party at the railway station on their arrival for the meeting of the Supreme Council, which is regarded as one of the most important yet held. A most favourable atmosphere prevails.

The impression that practical decisions will be reached largely accounts for the marked improvement in the value of the franc, which yesterday closed at 54.65 to the £, compared with 61.33 on the previous day.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL.

Paris, January 21.

The next meeting of the Council of the League of Nations is to take place at Geneva on February 21 under the presidency of Dr. Da Cunha, Brazilian Ambassador to Paris. Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador to London, will represent China, which is now a member of the Council of the League.

INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Paris, January 23.

Holland has been admitted to membership of the International Chamber of Commerce.

GIRL "SLAVE".

Ill-Treated and Underfed.

Another instance of the many evils of the mui-tai system in Hongkong was afforded by a case heard before Mr. R. E. Lindell, at the Police Court this morning, when a Chinese woman was charged in connection with an offence whose unexampled cruelty drew from the Magistrate the observation that "it is the likes of you that bring discredit on the mui-tai system in Hongkong."

The mui-tai in question is nine years of age, and she had to be removed to the Government Civil Hospital as the result of a severe beating she underwent at the hands of the defendant. Life since her transfer into the hands of her present mistress on the payment of a few dollars, had not been a conspicuously happy one, for, in addition to the many beatings she received, of which the one under investigation was an instance, she was underfed, and the marks of this privation were only too evident when she appeared as a witness in the case before his Worship this morning.

The Police received information from another tenant of the house in which the defendant lived, as a consequence of which they called at this address and found the girl in a condition which required the medical treatment. She was removed to the Government Civil Hospital, and in the meantime the woman had been brought up before the Court and remanded to enable the servant girl to recover and give her evidence.

When again brought up before the Magistrate this morning, the defendant pleaded guilty, and his Worship called for the medical statement. Dr. Y. K. Yoo, of the Government Civil Hospital, said that the mui-tai was examined by him and he found that she was suffering from bruises on both arms and hands, a small lacerated wound on the right side of the head, bruises on the forehead, and some swelling on the left side. She was also suffering from the effects of under-nourishment.

The defendant was called upon by his Worship to explain the reasons for the under-nourishment of the mui-tai. She formulated the excuse that the girl refused food on several occasions, and added, somewhat ironically, that they, being poor people, could only afford two meals a day.

In a severe tone, the Magistrate said: "It is the likes of you that bring discredit on the mui-tai system in Hongkong. Four weeks' hard labour."

The option of a fine, which under ordinary circumstances is permitted in an assault case, was not given.

BIG EX-GERMAN BOAT.

The Cap Finisterre in Port.

A big liner which came into port this morning and which has attracted much notice by reason of her size is the Cap Finisterre, a former German boat which has been allotted to Japan under the Peace Treaty terms. She flies at the masthead the N.Y.K. flag and she is on the way to Japan, where her eventual use will be decided upon.

The Cap Finisterre, which is one of the biggest boats that have visited the port, is lying at a mooring in the central part of the harbour, and is noteworthy for her high superstructure. She brought out a large number of European passengers from Home.

PODOLSKY.

The public is anticipating with deep interest the appearance of Podolsky and Mirova at the St. Andrew's Hall at 5.30 p.m. on Wednesday.

A special stage is being erected, with scenic background, whilst there will be limelight projections in operation during the musical dances. A fine programme is promised.

THE JAPANESE DIET IN SESSION.

Address by the Premier.

By courtesy of the Japanese Consul-General we are enabled to give the text of an address to the Diet delivered at the end of last week by the Premier, Mr. K. Hara.

"It need hardly be said that, consequent upon the Peace Conference of 1919, the responsibilities of our country have greatly increased as regards its contribution to the peace of the world."

"Accordingly united efforts of the whole nation are more than ever required for the growth of the national resources and enhancement of the national prestige. And inasmuch as it is an undeniable fact that the external development of the country depends upon the growth of the national strength, the Government is conducting affairs of State in accordance with this principle, so far as the circumstances and finances of the country permit. As to foreign relations of the country, I am happy to say that we are on good terms with all foreign countries. True that there are now, as at other times, some questions pending, such as the Californian and Chientao questions. In the case of the Californian question, however, the authorities concerned, both American and Japanese, are now engaged in a discussion thereof in the most friendly spirit, the government anticipating a satisfactory settlement."

"About Chientao, the question of the despatch of our troops to that district is only a temporary measure demanded by necessity and self-defence in the presence of disturbing conditions as evidenced in the acts of those outlaws who had burnt our Consulate at Hunchun and killed and wounded our countrymen there. As soon as order and security in that district are assured, for which the Chinese Government is primarily responsible, these troops will, of course, be withdrawn, as announced on the occasion of their despatch. In fact, with the exception of small detachments, these troops have already been withdrawn."

"Concerning other questions, the Government, actuated as they are by the most sincere desire to further improve the existing friendly relations with foreign countries, are prepared to treat them equally with right and justice."

A very lengthy address upon international conditions and the League of Nations was delivered by the Foreign Minister, Count Y. Uchida, which we shall publish to-morrow.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

His Excellency gave a dinner on Saturday evening at Government House in honour of the Hon. Mr. W. Chatham C. M. G., and Mrs. Chatham. The guests present were Hon. Mr. E. V. D. Farr and Mrs. Farr, Dr. and Mrs. Harston, Miss Harston, Mr. and Mrs. Denison, Major and Mrs. Wakeman, Dr. and Mrs. Black, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Ormiston, Mr. Hake.

DAY BY DAY.

In a fall from scaffolding erected round the propeller of the Sunning, which was undergoing repairs in dry dock at Taikoo, a Chinese fitter was killed. His remains were subsequently removed to the Public Mortuary.

There was removed to the Public Mortuary on Saturday the body of a Chinese female who was found with her throat cut at her house at No. 12, Wai Yuen Fong East. The Police believe that the case is one of suicide.

In connection with the armed robbery at Stanley Street, reported on Saturday, a Chinese woman was this morning brought up before Mr. R. E. Lindell by Sub-Inspector McNab Wilson, M. C., and charged with receiving several articles of jewellery and clothing identified as being part of the booty taken away by the robbers. She was remanded on the application of the Police Officer.

The acting Chief Justice, Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz, presided over the adjourned January Criminal Sessions to-day. Sui Yik-moon was charged with forging a receipt with intent to defraud. Mr. Dyer Ball, assistant Crown Solicitor, applied for an adjournment. His Lordship ordered the case to stand over until the February Sessions and fixed bail at $800. The Sessions will sit again on Wednesday at 10.30 a.m.

A marriage has been arranged, and will take place in April at Rangoon, between Charles Jesse Lloyd, of Singapore, son of the late Charles Vincent Lloyd, of Hongkong, and Mrs. Lloyd, Mitcham, Surrey, and Vera Kenyon Reid, only daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel James H. Parker, Royal Marines, and Mrs. Parker, Mitcham, and granddaughter of the late Very Rev. Dean Watson Reid, of Glasgow and Galloway.

What was regarded as an aggravated case of smuggling was decided by Mr. R. E. Lindell at the Police Court this morning in the indication of six months' hard labour on the defendant, a carpenter on the Sunning. No less than six revolvers and 500 rounds of ammunition were seized by the Police from a secret compartment which the defendant had contrived in a cabin of the steamer. In his position, and aided by such ingenious means, the man was able to do a large business in arms, for which reason the Captain Superintendent of Police conveyed to the Magistrate his wish that an exemplary penalty should be imposed. His Worship, accordingly, passed sentence as recorded, and refused the defendant's application for the option of a fine.

SUBMARINE DISASTER.

London, Jan. 22.
The Admiralty announce the total loss of Submarine K5, Commander Gaimon, D.S.O., with all hands on 20th January at the approach to the Channel. Inquiries are being made.

It is stated that the K5 was rammed during exercises, which aimed at ascertaining the vulnerability of big ships. She was accompanying the Atlantic Fleet on a long cruise in Spanish and Portuguese waters. Five submarines dived for undersea practice, but only four reappeared. A flotilla of destroyers searched in vain. The remaining four submarines were ordered to proceed to Vigo.

It is believed the submarine was manned by six officers and fifty men. The K class are big fast submarines, capable of cruising at sea with the Grand Fleet. Their average length is 340 feet, with 33 feet beam. They are armed with one four-inch gun and one three-inch, as well as anti-aircraft guns. They are driven by geared turbines from oil-fired boilers. Their surface speed is twenty-four knots, and submerged ten knots. It is understood the disaster occurred about a hundred miles from Land's End.

Commander Gaimon was in China in charge of the submarine base for the first twelve months of the War. He was decorated for work at Heligoland.

London, Jan. 23.
The K5 disaster, which is the first serious British naval accident since the War, still lacks explanation. The Admiralty denies the ramming theory. The depth of water is six hundred feet in Arosa Bay, where the vessel was lost, therefore salvage is very unlikely. It is interesting to recall that the divulgence of the specifications of the K type after the war created astonishment, particularly in Germany, upsetting the belief that the Deutschland type of U-Boat were the pioneers, whereas the Ks were three-thousand tonners, constructed before the Deutschland.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

Paris, Jan. 22.
A vote of confidence followed a statement by M. Briand, the Premier, characterising the present fixation of the total indemnity as a fool's bargain, emphasising the determination of France to enforce the Treaty to the letter, exhausting every means of conciliation before resorting to force.

M. Briand was confident of Allied solidarity, but if France were left alone to face probable German aggression she would not hesitate to take her own measures.

London, Jan. 22.
Reuter learns that the British delegation to the Paris Conference leaves to-morrow for Paris. Mr. Lloyd George will be accompanied by Sir E. Sassoon, Sir Maurice Hankey, Sir Philip Kerr. Lord Curzon will be accompanied by Sir Eyre Crowe and others. As regards reparations Lord D'Abernon declared that the prospects of reaching a satisfactory agreement were now particularly good.

London, Jan. 23.
The "Echo de Paris" states that M. Millerand, M. Briand, M. Loucheur (Minister for Reparations) and other French Ministerialists are conferring at the Elysee this morning on the questions coming before the Inter-Allied Conference, particularly the five annual payments by Germany and fixing the total indebtedness of Germany. The newspaper understands that M. Millerand holds that the total indebtedness of Germany must be fixed as well as the question of penalties in default, without awaiting completion of the five annual payments.

THE NEW CONSORTIUM.

London, Jan. 22.
At a dinner to Mr. Sidney Mayers, who is shortly returning to Peking, Sir Charles Addis described the new Chinese Consortium as an offer to help China out of her present difficulties and to co-operate with China to establish a strong stable central Government. He emphasised that each Power in the Consortium expressly disclaimed any intention of seeking any separate national advantages, while no part of the Consortium would interfere or restrict private enterprise. He declared that at present the Consortium policy was necessarily a railway policy.

Mr. Mayers pointed out that the Consortium's ultimate aim, namely unification of all railways under one uniform system, would not be fulfilled until the Chinese Government adopted principles whereby the new lines should be devoted entirely of the character of concessions granted to any particular nationality. They should be administered free of interference on the part of local authorities, and their surplus revenues should be devoted to further development of a co-ordinated railway system.

FAR EASTERN LANGUAGES.

London, Jan. 23.
Distributing the prizes to the students of the City of London College at the Mansion House yesterday, the Dean of St. Paul's urged the College to provide instruction in Far Eastern languages. He declared that in the near future a knowledge of Japanese and Chinese might be even more valuable commercially to the young people of Britain than a knowledge of Dutch and Russian. It was Colleges like the City of London that would help to keep our trade and commerce up-to-date. We would have to meet formidable competition, not only from Germany but also from Japan and China.

DEARER GAS.

London, Jan. 22.
Londoners were to-day shocked to hear that the price of gas is being raised by tenpence to 5s. 6d. per thousand cubic feet on Tuesday. It is greater than any advance during the war and is stated to be due to the slump in the coke trade and falling prices of other residuals. The 1914 price was 2s. 8d. It is pointed out that coke recently slumped from £10 to 54.

TYPHUS IN EASTERN EUROPE.

Geneva, Jan. 23.
Despite the efforts of the health services, typhus is still ravaging Eastern Europe. There have been three or four thousand cases in the region of Grodno, Lida and Molkovetz. The influx of Russian and Ukrainian refugees to Galicia is complicating the task of the medical staff, many of whom have succumbed to this epidemic.

UNION CHURCH.

Mr. Maconachie Resumes Duty.

At Union Church on Sunday morning there was a large congregation to greet Rev. J. Kirk Maconachie on his return from furlough.

Taking his text from Romans I, 11.12, "I long to see you, that I may impart some spiritual gift for your strengthening—or, in other words, that I may be encouraged by meeting you, I by your faith and you by mine," the preacher said:

Some ten days ago I was in Singapore on my way hither. Having time to spare and being, as I trust, of a neighbourly disposition, I made an attempt to call on the Presbyterian minister. On the journey to England last May we had had the pleasure of hearing and seeing the late minister, Mr. Cross, who was then on the eve of departure. I was not, however, able to make the acquaintance of the new minister, Mr. Douglas, for a meeting of the Kirk Session appeared to be in progress at the church and lasted longer than I could wait. But, whilst waiting, I occupied the time reading the church magazine and similar literature, from which one gathered that the duties, prospects and problems of our neighbours in the Straits Settlements are very similar to our own, only "more so," if one may use that expression.

One remark in a farewell address of the late minister came home to me in the circumstances. Speaking of the constant comings and goings he said that congregations out here are more like a procession than a steady quantity. That, of course, is so, and no minister from the old country can fail to be struck by it. It affects church life at every point as also it affects social life, and whether for the better or the worse is a question on which, I suppose, people's differing views depend a good deal on the varying dispositions.

During my seven years in Hongkong I have always been conscious of its inevitable condition of change and movement, although whilst the War lasted it was less marked than normally. One has often wished it could be otherwise—particularly when the departure of a steamer or two any spring season has broken up our choir, carried away half of our officers and committee, disintegrated our Sunday School, and faced the C. E. Society with the recurrent—I had almost said chronic—uncertainty of whether or not it would be able to carry on.

On the other hand there are compensations. I often find inquiring friends at home that it is so small privilege in a port like this to meet people of so many and varied types, to have the opportunity of speaking a word in season, holding out the hand of friendship, ministering in Christian worship and ordinances, as men and women come and go, or stop a while about their business in this centre of much resort.

It is no object of mine to attempt to strike a balance between advantages and disadvantages in these respects. I am here to go on with my work, and all of us who have duties are wise to accept life as it is appointed to us, and avoid the foolish and futile habit of wishing its circumstances were other than they are. But in looking forward to resuming the work in Hongkong, I have been conscious of late of a new sensation—sometimes almost an apprehension—on the subject. Taking up again after nine months' absence seems like breaking into the procession, if I may resume the figure of speech, and breaking into a procession is an awkward kind of thing to have to attempt.

That is just where in one respect this text from St. Paul can only be made mine with a qualification.

My first address in this pulpit was based on another sentence of his from this very section, V. 15, "So much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ," etc.

That holds good still in its entirety. I am more and more proud to serve the gospel of Christ, being more and more assured that it is the one and sufficient hope of our wayward world, and more and more concerned that it shall never have cause to be ashamed of me; and I am ready to preach it anywhere, and in any way which opportunity offers.

That was always St. Paul's spirit, and it is the classic and inspiring example to all us preachers and teachers down all the vistas of time. But St. Paul was writing here to a far distant city and a church he had never seen—just that altogether it seemed as if as to me in Manchester in 1913 Hongkong was far away—and this church an unknown quantity.

So I have found myself of late somewhat in accord with his mind when he writes to a certain community in anticipation of his third visit, that he fears he may not find them such as he would, and that they should find him such as they would not. I will not take this too gravely. I am not indicating any serious apprehensions in my mind or reluctance to take up the work. But three-quarters of a year's absence is a new experience for me, and a modest man may be excused a passing qualm or two lest he should find the procession had moved past him.

That is all I mean—the really black spot in the great missionary's outlook has not loomed before me. What he dreaded, and with too much cause, was the disruption through heresies and immoralities of churches he had founded with prayers and tears, misled to their ruin when deprived of his fostering care. I certainly have had ground for no such fears, knowing that the pastorate was in the tried and able hands of Mr. Williams, and would be exercised in a congregation long and truly established in the ways of grace.

And I should like to say that in whatever respect I may have needed reassurance the need has been fully met by the kindly and repeated welcomes which these few days past have brought us, and which you will allow me just to say in a word, are as heartily reciprocated by your minister and his wife.

We feel that we have come home. Of late we have sometimes felt as though we had two homes, which must be more or less the case with most of us colonists. Three times in one Sunday the old church in Manchester was full, morning and evening, when I had the joy of preaching, and in the afternoon when Mrs. Maconachie spoke to the big school and its constituency, telling them, I believe, one or two things about you, or rather about

"I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift for your strengthening"—there speaks the Christian pastor. I hope I may say without offence that he makes no assumption to be the priest.

The absence of what one may call ecclesiastical pose is one of the most notable characteristics of the Apostle Paul. See how here he explicates his imparting of spiritual gift "in" other words that I may be encouraged by

THE DENNISTON PLAYERS

"SHE WALKED IN HER SLEEP"

A Farce in Three Acts.

What the Papers say of "She Walked in her Sleep"

"Englishman" Calcutta. "The title is good, as a Farce, and as played by the Company last night, it is really good goods. Go to it, to-night, if you can get seats, and you will bless the man who told you to go."

"Statesman" Calcutta. "As the Company produced the Farce last night at the Empire Theatre, it was a success. Laughter rippled throughout the proceedings, to say nothing of breaking out into roars every few minutes."

"Advocate of India" Bombay. "She Walked in Her Sleep" is one of the funniest Farces Bombay has seen for a long time. It is a Farce pure and simple, full of amusing scenes and witty lines."

"Times of India" Bombay. "She Walked in her Sleep" played as it was in that happy go-lucky manner, which contributes so largely to the success of the DENNISTON COMPANY, was altogether the funniest Farce, we have ever seen in Bombay."

NOTICE.

THE NATIONAL LOAN OF THE THIRD YEAR OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA (1914) $16,000,000 AND SUPPLEMENTARY ISSUE OF $8,000,000

AND THE NATIONAL LOAN OF THE FOURTH YEAR OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA (1915) $24,000,000.

On the 6th June, 1917, the undersigned notified Subscribers to the above two loans that in pursuance of arrangements made with the Chinese Government, the loan service as regards interest payments would in future be adequately secured.

In regard to the redemption of the loans it was impossible at the time to make any announcement. The Memorandum of 1916 affected the Loan Service, and, although drawings have been proceeded with funds permitted, Redemption has been irregular and behind the scheduled dates.

Arrangements have now been made which will enable annual drawings of each loan to be undertaken until their extinction, in 1924 in the case of the 4th. Year Loan and 1925 in the case of the 3rd. Year Loan.

The Ministry of Finance will notify in due course the date of the drawings to take place this year with date and place of repayment.

IS BRITISH SPORT DECADENT?

A recent issue of our Straits contemporary, the Singapore Free Press, devotes a leader to the familiar question regarding British decadence in sport. "Our leadership is decidedly going," says the writer, instancing lawn tennis, cricket, boxing and athletics. This, we suggest, does not state the facts correctly. If by "leadership" is meant the all-round supremacy which Britain held in the long-ago, the leadership is not "going," but has been gone some many years, and for the sufficient reason that sport is now far more widespread. If, on the other hand, the comparison is with, say, the earlier part of the present century, there does not on the whole appear to have been any marked decline. Comparisons with the early history of sport, when Britain stood almost alone in systematic application, seem generally to overlook the altered conditions that have come about in the last half century. To say nothing of the United States—where for some decades now "specialisation" has been carried to a pitch that British athletes have not professed to adopt—athletics are now practised widely in countries that were of small account in this connection formerly, and did not enter at all into international competition.

The Straits writer proceeds to give reasons for his hypothesis. He says that cricketers outside of the first-class counties are rarely chosen for the Test Matches, although there are fine players in minor cricket. This, surely, does not pose the question fairly. The selection committee can but go upon certain facts. In second-class county cricket, although the standard is often excellent, it is difficult to recall players up to Test Match standard. The exception provided by the case of Barnes, which the Straits writer quotes in support of his argument, seems to us to point the other way, as indicating the readiness of the selection committee to avail themselves of a player from minor cricket when he happens to be good enough. Regarding the difficulties which are stated to have arisen in connection with Barnes, we do not recollect that there were any "difficulties" when the Staffordshire bowler accompanied the previous team to Australia, and in regard to the present tour he was left out because he wanted better terms than the first-class county players. As far as League and club cricket players are concerned, the counties, which in the nature of the case are the graduating medium for international cricket—are generally very pleased to give a trial to promising players. Admittedly the Test matches just played are, on results, in accordance with our Straits friend's argument of deterioration. Yet we fancy a second glance will show that here, too, it was rather the remarkable brilliancy of the rival side. It is a difficult matter to institute comparisons with previous teams unless the margin be very marked, but we are inclined to hazard the opinion that the present team is quite as strong as, if not stronger than, the previous one, which was successful in gaining the rubber.

In regard to lawn tennis, the writer is probably correct in saying that English representatives would benefit by the infusion of new blood, but it is surely up to the younger players themselves to come forward. Respecting boxers, the writer's complaint seems to be that we stick to beaten favourites, Billy Wells being quoted. In the Old Country, Wells is quoted in the opposite sense as a man who, contrary to all precedent, is allowed opportunity after opportunity. The usual complaint of the boxer is that as soon as he suffers defeat he is no longer wanted. In any case this devotion to Wells has been without prejudice to opportunities for new candidates, any heavy-weight of even the second-class is assured of a trial. In Lewis and Wilde, in spite of their occasional reverses, we have two boxers of world's championship calibre, which is as many as we have had at a time for decades. As to general athletics, while results have shown considerable fluctuation, Britain has maintained a pretty fair standard. Taken altogether, the talk of decadence is something of a misnomer, the rational explanation being that competition has become more extended with the development of sport in other countries.

NOTES & COMMENTS.

"Appy" Awkins.

That must have been a very interesting sight aboard H.M.S. Hawkins on Friday night when some four hundred men of the Navy enjoyed a dance on the spacious Quarterdeck of the flagship. According to the correspondent who sent us an account of the affair the bluejackets danced "with a lilt and a sway that for skill alone defies conception by the average land-lubber or ball-room dandy." A nice little jibe, that—meant in good part, we are sure, and so accepted. But the most gratifying feature of the function was the granting of the use of the Quarterdeck, which is cited as a further outstanding instance, amongst many provided by the Hawkins, of the ideal relations existing between officers and men of our present-day democratic Navy. We cannot remember ever having heard of a like gathering under such conditions before, and we are glad to think that the China Station should provide such an illustration of real camaraderie in the Fleet. Our naval men live a life which is not all "beer and skittles"—they have inconveniences and hardships to put up with in all parts of the world which we fear are not always remembered by folk ashore; but it is something to feel that, for comfort and privileges, conditions are immeasurably better than they ever were before. And when our sailors strike a "happy" ship like the Hawkins they are like a big, cheery family living together. There isn't much wrong with our Navy today. It makes us proud to think that officers and men are in such close and happy touch. Here on the China Station we see many proofs of that, a circumstance which must be extremely gratifying to the Admiral, who is loved by the whole Fleet and who has done much to encourage that spirit of goodwill and fraternity.

Watch Germany.

We saw it recently stated that Germany is keeping the records clear for her next war and that when it comes, there can be no complaint that sufficient warning wasn't given. The Germans are clumsy conspirators. They must exercise their warlike spirit with incalculable bravado in the open. That is what Germany appears to have done by notifying the League of Nations recently that she repudiated her signature to the colonial clause of the Peace Treaty. There is, in fact, no colonial clause separate from the Treaty. To repudiate part of the Treaty is to erase the German signature entirely, and Germany's action appears to suggest that when the proper time comes, the whole Treaty will become a scrap of paper. When a beaten nation repudiates a Treaty of Peace, it technically means a renewal of war. Theoretically, the German nation might therefore be regarded as being once more at war with the Allies, considering the present time an armed peace. That is why too much latitude towards her would be fatal to Europe and the world.

Mythomania.

Most persons are familiar with the habit some children have of telling an imaginary tale of their own invention as if it were fact. Professor Dupre says this sometimes persists as the raconteurs grow older. It is a sort of intellectual immaturity, often in contrast to the rest of the mentality. He says it is a disease, this more or less voluntary and conscious tendency to invent myths to be told as fact. Professor Dupre calls it mythomania. Others have given it an uglier word. But that does not change the fact, or deny that a person who tells such myths may require the attention of a physician. It was not long ago that all insane persons were treated as criminals. Mythomania in its morbid form is characterized by a lack of finality in the thing told, the undue prolongation of the narrative itself, and its inadequacy to convey an idea from the mind of the mythomaniac to the mind of the listener. That being so, the prudent person who has a story to tell, and who doesn't wish to be thought a mythomaniac, had better make his story pointed and cut it short. Editors, who get far more callers in the course of a day than they feel like receiving, would do well to rub this point in.

The crews of the Admiralty wireless stations at Aden, Matara (Ceylon), Seletar (Singapore), and Stonecutters (Hongkong) will in future be relieved one-half at a time. This is to ensure a proportion of the crew of each of these stations always being acclimatised men who are thoroughly conversant with their duties and with the work of the Station.

We are asked to remind our readers that Mr. G. P. de Martin will deliver a Popular Lecture on "Machiavelli" this afternoon at 5.30 p.m., and that the Rev. E. L. Martin will give addresses on "The Renaissance of the Literary Study of the Bible" on Tuesday, January 25th and Tuesday, February 1st, at 5 p.m., at the Helena May Institute. A musicale has also been arranged for Wednesday afternoon January 25th, at 5.30 p.m., at the Institute.

The title of the Wiltshire Regiment—the 1st Battalion of which is fighting on the "Irish front"—and the 2nd Battalion at Hongkong—is to be changed on New Year's Day next (says a Home paper of December 16) from its present one of the "Duke of Edinburgh's (Wiltshire Regiment)" to the "Wiltshire Regiment (Duke of Edinburgh's)," which is a distinction with very little difference. There will be no change in the regimental badges, shoulder straps, etc., till the existing stock is exhausted.

Commander Norman A. Wodehouse has been appointed Fleet Gunner Officer on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief of the China Station. Commander Wodehouse, who has been over twenty years in the Royal Navy, was gunnery officer of the ill-fated Warrior when she broke out, and saw much service in the North Sea and other spheres of naval activity. Commander R. H. C. Hallifax has been appointed to the staff of the Commander-in-Chief of the China Station for wireless telegraph duties (Operations Staff branch). Both officers join the flagship Hawkins.

On the Island of Lamma yesterday, an old bit of Chinese history was re-staged, when "White Wolf," the notorious bandit, was hunted and eventually captured. The occasion was a Scouts Rally, participated in by the St. Joseph's Troop, and the newly-formed Troop of the Diocesan School. The trip had been rendered possible by the energy and kindness of Colonel Bowen and Captain McGrath, who paid all expenses. Mr. Weyman, Secretary of the Scouts Association, the Misses Bowen, and Colonel Nicholson were amongst others who took a keen interest in the proceedings which were for the Scouts a most enjoyable as well as a useful outing.

RUGBY CHALLENGE CUP.

Navy, 17 points; H.K. Club, 3.

CLUB V. S.C.A.

Played on the Club ground before a large number of Chinese and with the Club stand full to overflowing. Wong Pak-cheung started the game for the Chinese who were soon in Club territory, where McPhail sent them back and Begg, getting away, passed out to the right, Chan So clearing. The game was very fast and the goal was called upon at each end to clear. Following a run down the wing by Au Kit-sang and a neat clearance by Gerrard, Begg went in and opened the score for the Club after about ten minutes' play. Stung by this unexpected reverse, the Chinese attacked strongly and Rodger was called upon to save shots from Ip Kau and Wong Pak-cheung. Hands against Ip Kau cleared and Rodger sent Hamilton away, the latter centreing well down, where Chan So cleared. Begg fouled Tai Fong, and Chan So taking the kick sent out to Au Kit-sang who centred and Ip Kau sent over the bar. At the other end, Riis delayed his centre and Fung Tai cleared. Club returned and Goldman sent across to Hamilton, who headed back to McTavish, but Cheung cleared. Hereabouts the Chinese should have scored, for Rodger made a weak clearance from Ip Kau and leaving his goal, the Chinese centre-forward headed in, but Tonkin got back in time to head out the ball which went behind. The corner kick was well placed and Railton, in attempting to clear, handled in the penalty area. Au Kit-sang took the kick and Rodger saved amidst applause. No further scoring before half-time, the Club crossing over with a goal the lead. Resuming, the Chinese again attacked and the Club playing with ten men, Goldman having been injured in the closing minutes of the first half, were put on the defensive for a short time. The Club broke away and Lau Hing-cheung was called upon to save shots from Begg and McTavish. Riis should have put the Club further ahead, for with only the goal to beat he delayed his shot and was robbed by Fung Tai. The Club had their share of the play although a man short. Following a rush on the Club goal, Gerrard handled in the penalty area and Chan So, taking the kick, beat Rodger and made the scores equal. With only five minutes remaining for play, the Club attacked vigorously, but the Chinese defence kept them out and with the ball in midfield the whistle sounded for time with the score one all. Mr. Jones was the referee.

The game was very fast throughout, and although the Chinese had most of the play during the first half the Club turned the tables in the second half, for with only ten men the right wing was often dangerous. Goldman, who came into the side in place of Kuhr, played a useful game until he was badly kicked and had to be assisted off the field. Begg, taking the centre position, played a dashing game and tried to run through on several occasions, but the Chinese defence tackled and cleared well. Hamilton and McTavish played with understanding and put in some good runs. Riis was inclined to drop back among the half backs but he was greatly handicapped by losing his partner before half time. The strength of the Club lies in their middle line, where all three played excellent football. Railton was very prominent. Gerrard and Tonkin at times played sound football. Rodger in goal played his usual game and the penalty he saved brought him much applause. The Chinese forwards were speedy, but Ip Kau should take his game more seriously. Always a good shot, he is inclined to play to the gallery and spoil many a good opening. Tai Fong played a hard game and kept Begg well covered. His attention on the Club centre at times did not meet with Begg's approval and the exchanges were inclined to be rough. Chan So played a sound game and Lau Hing-cheung in goal saved well. He had no chance to stop the shot that beat him.

WILTS V. AMBROSE.

Played on the Navy ground before a good crowd of Service men. The Wilts started the game, but the Ambroses were soon attacking. The soldiers cleared and Menham scored an offside goal. Menham headed a centre from Amor over the bar. The Wilts, keeping up the pressure, opened the scoring through a penalty. Amor sent across from the left and Elsie ran out of goal to clear and missed, and Menham sent in where one of the defenders ran back and fisted away, the Wilts being awarded a penalty from which Amor scored. Wright, in the Wilts goal, was called upon to stop a shot from Knight. Amor went away on the left and centred, where Menham turned the ball into the net. The Ambroses took up the attack and Knight sent in a hard shot that the soldiers' goalie stopped but let the ball roll over the line. Before half-time, Menham put the soldiers further ahead and the teams crossed over with the Wilts leading by three goals to one.

From the restart, the Ambroses attacked but were sent back by Giles. Returning, the soldiers had hard luck, for a shot from the left struck the upright and went behind. Wilts transferred play to the other end and Menham receiving a pass from right sent over the bar. The Ambroses cleared and Knight, gaining possession, went in and scored. Amor forced a corner and taking the kick he sent behind. Menham, receiving a well-placed centre from the right, following a corner-kick, beat Elsie with a fast shot. No further scoring took place and with the sailors pressing the whistle sounded for time leaving the Wiltshires winners of a fast game by four goals to two. Mr. Wells had charge of the game.

With a little luck, the sailors should have equalised in the closing minutes of the game. On the play generally, the Wilts deserved their win.

KOWLOON V. POLICE.

This match at Sookunpoo was won by Kowloon. Robinson scored for the Police during the opening half, in which play was fast and even throughout and the teams crossed over with Kowloon one down. Resuming the Kowloon men took up the attack and Townsend made the scores level. Keeping up the pressure, Kowloon added to their score through Evelyn and Townsend and ran out winners by three goals to one.

Mr. Clements was in charge of the game.

ST. JOSEPH'S V. H.M.S. CARLISLE.—A very even game, with the sailors having slightly the better play. The Colleges scored through Ogley, who broke away and beat the defence, landed the ball in the net out of the reach of the goalkeeper. The Carlisle failed to score from two penalties and St. Joseph's left the field winners by the only goal scored.

PUNJABIS V. CLUB RESERVES.

The Punjabis repeated their performance in the opening match of the League by beating the Reserves by three goals to one. The Club started with only seven men and the Indian soldiers put on three goals during the first half, the club replying once. No further scoring took place in the second half, and the Punjabis ran out winners as stated.

UNITED V. CLUB DE RECREIO.—May scored for the United during the first half of the game and Valentine put them further ahead in the second, leaving them winners by two goals to nil.

OTHER MATCHES.

The R.G.A. Reserves beat the Indian Recreation Club by three goals to nil, Kent scoring the goals.

S.C.A. Reserves accounted for the Staff by four to nil, while the Kowloon Reserves and Oilers United played a drawn game at Sookunpoo.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph.")

The Roll of Honour.

Sir,—Might I once again ask your help in the matter of the list of Hongkong men who were killed in the War? Since writing to you last August a number of names have been received through the publicity you gave the matter. The Bronze Tablet with these names will have to be made in England; for the present they will be placed on a temporary tablet. The names will be read at the unveiling of the War Memorial on Sunday. If any of your readers know of any other name that ought to be included I shall be glad to receive it. Also, if any can give the full names of those where I only have initials I shall be grateful. I enclose the list. Thanking you for your kind help.—Yours, etc.,

HONGKONG THEATRE.

The Gibson Troupe.

The management of the Hongkong Theatre displayed commendable enterprise in its selection of the Gibson artistes to head their bill of attractions at the Cinema last night, and there was the most convincing evidence of its justification, in the capacity house registered. The lovely Trixie captured the hearts of the audience by her clever contortions, revealing a pliancy of form which other performers in the same lines may well envy. The little lady is also the possessor of an extremely good voice. Buttons, as previously advertised, spinned on his head in a comedy act, entitled "Chong," while Gibson and Doreen, gave numerous encores in response to the persistent requests of the audience. A strange assortment of musical instruments were used by these people. They produced tuneful music from every strange instrument, and their xylophone made up of the old spokes of a cartwheel, freely demonstrated its tunefulness to an appreciative audience. A fine film, featuring Norma Talmadge, completed the programme, which is being restaged to-night.

GRAND CHARITY
CONCERT.

Mme. Lottie Gordon's
Successful Effort.

Marked success attended the grand Charity Concert organised by Madame Lottie Gordon at the Theatre Royal on Saturday evening in aid of the Blind Home, Kowloon, and the Pokfulam Home. The building was filled in all parts, and the event enjoyed the patronage of his Excellency the Governor and Lady Stubbs his Excellency Vice-Admiral Duff and Miss Duff, his Excellency Major-General Sir George and Lady Kirkpatrick, Commodore and Mrs. Bowden Smith, and Mr. Justice Gompertz and Mrs. Gompertz. It was gratifying to see that Mme. Gordon's efforts in the good cause were so well supported.

A well-designed programme, including some eminently attractive selections, was enthusiastically received by the large audience, who spent a most enjoyable evening. Where all the programme was so well received it might be invidious to single out performers, but allusion may be made to the special attraction of the great Russian art danseuse, Miss Vera Mirova, who "brought the house down."

The programme was initiated with a delightful part song of Mme. Gordon's composition, "Wee-wee Boat Song" (words by E. Gordon, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Gonzales, and the Misses E. Stoneham, A. Wheeler, G. Ezra, N. Williams, E. Soars and B. Jennings contributing). Later "Barcarolle" ("Tales from Hoffmann") was given by the same ladies, some of whom were handicapped by severe colds. Miss Nellie Williams rendered "I wonder what the stars are," which was well received and Mme. Gordon was much in favour with some piano solos, including a prelude from Rachmaninoff and a polonaise from Chopin. Later she was heard in compositions of her own comprising "Romance Pour le d'Amour" and a minute. Miss Edie Soars had a good reception with "Obstinat" while in the second part of the programme she gained applause for her rendering of "Bird of Love Divine."

Quite a feature of the programme was presented by Miss B. D. Thompson, who gained looked rounds of applause for an impressive Recitation Carillon by Cammerer (music by Elgar), in which the Belgian composer celebrates his country's sufferings and triumph, the last verse translating Sing, Belgians, sing!

Although our wounds may bleed, although our voices break
Louder than the storm, louder than the guns

Although our wounds may bleed, although our hearts may break

Sing of hope and fiercest hate,
'Neath this bright Autumn sun:
Sing of the pride of charity
When vengeance would be so sweet.

Mrs. Maurice Minney was accorded an ovation for her rendering of "Mia Piccerella" from the opera of "Salvatore Rosa", and, later she gave a selection from "The Mikado," in appropriate costume, the melodious quality of her voice appearing to marked advantage.

The Misses Aileen and Doris Woods, who were accompanied by Mrs. Harry Woods, gave some popular American refrains. Lieut.-Colonel Crosse provided humour at the piano, which kept the audience in continual mirth, while an old favourite in Mr. Howard Freeborn found an admirable medium for his fine baritone voice in "Che Galida Manina", while in that ever-popular melody "I'll sing these songs of Araby" he was again very popular. Mrs. F. C. Hall, gave some varied contributions, and, like the other artists, received the honour of an encore.

Miss Vera Mirova completed the programme, and her interpretation of the Russian terpsichorean art was immensely favoured. She selected "The Dancing Doll" and her graceful, indeed exquisite, evolutions, well merited the admiration accorded them. Mr. Leo Podolsky played the piano accompaniments.

At the conclusion Mme. Lottie Gordon, who accompanied various artists besides her own contributions, expressed her thanks to all who had assisted in making the occasion such a success, and congratulations are due Mme. Gordon and the artists generally on providing such a varied and attractive programme. Mme.

K.C.C.

Concert and Presentation.

On Saturday night the Kowloon Cricket Club was transformed into a veritable music hall when the cream of Hongkong's talent (variety and otherwise) was occupying the boards. The applause which greeted the various turns was evidence of appreciation.

During an interval in the proceedings, Mr. A. O. Brown, the chairman, in a few terse remarks made a presentation to the late Secretary, Mr. L. J. Blackburn, as a recognition of the very useful work he has done at the Club, wishing him a pleasant holiday and a safe return. Mr. Blackburn suitably responded.

The programme was a long one and it would be difficult to make special mention of the individual turns as they were all excellent.

The following artists contributed:—Mr. G. McLeod was compelled to sing four of his best numbers; Mr. F. H. Farthing got a rousing encore and obliged with another. Messrs. Hambley and Hunter got the audience guessing with hypnotic stunts; Messrs. Allan and Savage produced cards, billiard balls and other sundries from practically nowhere and it is quite evident that they know the business; Mr. H. Chaney gave two musical monologues in his usual inimitable manner; Messrs. Cornley, Jordain and Oxberry were all in good voice and were rewarded with hearty applause; Mr. Rowe proved himself a master, in making a cigar box recite "Mary had a little lamb"; Mr. T. A. Barry brought the house down with his two songs in character; Mrs. Hood opened the second half of the programme with a rousing pianoforte selection. Mr. E. J. Edwards accompanied the various items with his usual ability.

The proceedings terminated with a hearty vote of thanks to the entertainers and Mr. V. C. Labrum who organised the concert.

B. I. PROFITS.

The profit of the British India Steam Navigation Company for the year ended Sept. 30, after providing for depreciation, and including £22,183 brought forward, amounted to £184,898, which is to be distributed, less interim dividends paid in May last, as follows:—On the preference stock, 5 per cent.; on the ordinary shares, 8 per cent., free of tax, and a special bonus of 6 per cent., free of tax, together absorbing £159,436, leaving to carry forward £25,462. In the previous year the dividends were the same, but the bonus was 4 per cent.

HOW RHEUMATISM CAN BE OVERCOME.

When the general health is broken down, if conditions are favorable for the disease, rheumatism is liable to develop. Without conditions of low vitality and weakened resistance nature will protect the body against disease. A marked feature of the development of rheumatism is the thinning of the blood. Until the blood becomes rich and well-oxygenated, so that it can eliminate poisons from the system, attacks of rheumatism may be expected from time to time.

The case of Mr. John Dempsey, of Kalgoolie, West Australia, well known as the proprietor of the Broken Hill Cordial Factory, is a proof of how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enable the system to throw off Rheumatism by purifying and enriching the blood. Mr. Dempsey said:—

"Some time ago I noticed a pain settling in my hips. It spread down the whole of my right leg. My knee was affected, and got terribly swollen, as did also the ankle and the instep. If I had to cross over a kerb I would have to lift my knee with both hands."

"At night I used to just hobble home. The spasms got more severe and more frequent till at last I was suffering continuously and had to take to bed. I was rubbed with all sorts of liniments, bottles of eucalyptus, anything I heard of, and got no cure. The agony all night was dreadful. I lay on my back and had to be turned in bed every time I wanted a change of position; it was impossible for me to do it myself. I thought I was laid up for good, but hearing one day that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured another patient of Rheumatism, I sent for a bottle. That first took me out of bed and put me to work again. I could hardly credit such a thing in myself. I continued taking the Pills, and after a time not a pain was left."

Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, or they will be sent post-paid, on receipt of price, $1.50 the bottle, $3 for six bottles, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai. If you are interested write to-day for the free book, "Building Up the Blood," containing a special chapter on rheumatism.

A STOWAWAY.

M.D. Robert, a Singapore, was this morning brought up before Mr. G. N. Orme and charged with being a stowaway on the Tamba Maru, arriving here from Singapore. When the vessel left Singapore the defendant stowed on board and was not discovered until the vessel was well out at sea. He admitted that he did endeavour to stow away but claimed leniency at the hands of the Court in view of the fact that he had worked aboard for five days. Asked by the Magistrate as to the plans of the Police now that they had the defendant on their hands, Inspector Spear observed that it was a difficult question for them, as they were not sure that the authorities in Singapore would want the defendant if he were sent back from Hongkong. Sentence of twenty-one days' hard labour was then inflicted by the Magistrate.
